

AITO WELCOMES TWO NEW AGENTS PANEL MEMBERS

Oli Dobbs from Travel Gallery and Holly Brown from Inside Travel Group

28 May, 2025

AITO, The Specialist Travel Association, is delighted to announce the appointment of two new members to the AITO Agents Panel, bringing fresh expertise and energy to the organisation as it continues to champion excellence in the independent travel sector.

Speaking on behalf of the association, Chair of AITO Specialist Travel Agents, Gemma Antrobus, expressed heartfelt gratitude to the new appointees for committing their valuable time and insight to support the travel trade community.

“We are thrilled to welcome Oli Dobbs from Travel Gallery and Holly Brown from Inside Travel Group to the AITO Agents Panel,” said Antrobus. “Both bring a wealth of experience from different corners of the travel industry, and their perspectives will be instrumental in shaping our strategy moving forward. Their willingness to contribute at this level is hugely appreciated by all of us at AITO.”

As the AITO family continues to evolve and thrive, the newly strengthened panel is already working on a number of initiatives designed to support, empower and connect travel agent and tour operator members. From enhanced training opportunities and new tools for business development to an exciting events calendar, the future looks bright for AITO travel agents and tour operators alike.

Antrobus added: “The travel industry has faced considerable challenges in recent years, but we firmly believe in the resilience and importance of independent travel. With a strong and committed panel, AITO is better equipped than ever to support our members through innovation, collaboration and forward-thinking initiatives.”

The appointments underscore AITO’s commitment to continual improvement and collaboration, as it maintains its position as the voice of specialist and independent tour operators across the UK.

Oli and Holly join the following current AITO Agents Panel members:

Gemma Antrobus, Haslemere Travel - Agent & Chair
